The game requires you to complete the puzzle with the passage of the level. If you are a person who loves and knows how to play computer games, then you will probably like the game Blood 2, in which you can prove yourself. This interesting game was created based on one of the parts of the legendary arcade shooter. Probably, many fans of arcade games remember the game DotA, which was released based on the popular esports discipline. Human Head game in which the protagonist named George goes to a mysterious place to find out who killed his father. A key feature of the project is that a strictly defined amount of time is given to complete the levels. Otherwise, the game is considered completed, and you will have to leave the virtual universe and go in search of answers to questions. In the game, you must become the owner of a unique artifact that will cause an incredible wave that will cover all the countries of the world. Once you are in the water, you will be able to control your body and turn your hands into a spear that will be aimed at the spider. You should not expect that after your single shot the spider will die, as it has an artificial skin that can regenerate. In order to go to the next level, you need to use a special device called "butterfly". If used incorrectly, the butterfly can turn your body into a huge spider that will attack objects while you jump. Before each jump, you need to get your body down to the surface of the water. This will give you the ability to quickly move your body up and down. Additional Information: You can download the Human Head game for Android for free and without registration. After installing the game, you will get a lot of positive emotions and memories.
